To whom it may concern,

Attached is the policy for "carry in alcoholic beverages" which is currently in place at Il Forno's located at 405 Nagog Park. We believe this policy is working well. We would implement and enforce this same policy.

Michael & Christine Page

Rules for Bring Your Own Alcohol

1. You, the server are responsible for carding everyone whom you believe is under the age of 40. Customers may appear older than they really are. Looks are deceiving and you should never base your decision to card them on how old they look.

This is a state law.

2. You are also responsible for how much your customers consume. This restaurant is like every other restaurant in terms of being held accountable for over serving a customer. Our responsibility stretches outside the restaurant as well; customers must be able to make it home safely to the best of your knowledge. This can be achieved by paying attention to their behavior at the beginning, middle and end of the meal. In order to deliver the best possible service, paying close attention to your customer's behavior should be second nature.

3. If at any time you feel that a customer has consumed too much alcohol and you are not comfortable approaching them, speak to the manager on duty. This is their job to take action either by taking the customers keys, calling a cab or calling the police. This is a very serious matter and we need to make sure our customers and yourselves are always safe.

Please sign and date this.
